

Child Friendly Leeds Awards 2017

Calling all young performers!

On Thursday 2nd February 2017, City Varieties will host the 4th annual child friendly Leeds awards and we're looking for exciting young acts that can showcase the best of the city's talent.

Are you part of a dance or singing group? Can you act, tell jokes or do magic tricks? Perhaps you have an unusual skill that has never been seen in Leeds before?

Would you like to perform on the world-famous City Varieties stage at a prestigious awards ceremony? If so, we'd love to hear from you.

What we're looking for:

Individuals or groups who have a talent for entertaining; it could be singing, playing an instrument, dancing, comedy or magic.

- All performers should be aged 8-25yrs and must have parental consent if aged under 18
- Performers must be available on Thursday 2nd February (the day of the awards) from 4pm until the end of the awards at approx. 9.00pm
- Performers should have some experience of performing in front of a large audience
- Performers will need to provide their own props, costumes, music and other resources necessary for their act

If you're interested in applying, please complete the attached booking form and return (with photos and a short video clip of your act) to catherine.hayward@leedsgrandtheatre.com before the deadline of 10am on Monday 10th October 2016. Our young planning group will review all the acts and make a decision. All acts will be contacted by the end of October.
